BABY CARE KITS FOR LWR

The Stewardship and Evangelism committees along with WHOO and Thrivent are partnering with Lutheran World Relief to collect items for Baby Care Kits. The kits are distributed internationally as part of emergency relief efforts but they are also given to encourage expectant women to seek prenatal care. Check out the display in the Narthex to see what items are needed to complete these kits. We pray that Hope will be able to assemble 18 kits.

You are invited to take one of more of the tags, purchase the specific supplies and return them to the Pack and Play by Sunday, July 9th.

Together we can do God's work, using our hands. Thank you!

POTLUCK FAMILY PICNIC

Everyone! Young and old! Mark your calendars for a good time on August 13th after church worship at 12 pm. A potluck style family picnic is being organized (by the Byrnes and Williams families) filled with games for all ages for some old fashioned family food and play. Bring your favorite dish and enjoy the outdoors (barring rain). Join in the competition or just watch and cheer on the antics of those involved. Renew old friendships or seek new ones with those attending a different Hope worship service.

Watch the bulletin and August newsletter for further details. You won't want to miss this event!

DONATIONS OF PAPER REQUESTED

Northwest School's HANDS Health and Safety Fair is scheduled for Wednesday, August 9, at Northgate Mall. Traditionally, Hope has helped supply one item for the school bags given by community to aid the students as they return to school in the fall.

Hope's Congregation Council has determined we will collect packs of wide ruled looseleaf paper. They would like 500 packs, so any donation would be helpful. The deadline is August 2nd. Let's see how quickly the empty paper box in the Narthex is filled!

SUMMER CRAFT FAIR PLANNED

On Saturday, July 8th, Rhonda Greene is hosting a Craft Fair in our Fellowship Hall from 9 am - 2 pm.

Everyone is invited to come to Hope and check out the handcrafted products offered for sale by various vendors. You might find that special gift for a friend or someone in your family or even something for yourself.

Rhonda is sharing her profits with Hope, so please support this event.

SUNDAY SCHOOL TEACHERS SOUGHT

Are you available this September to help teach our young children in Sunday School during our Welcome Hour? Kayla Terbrueggen, Hope's chair of Christian Education, is looking for volunteers to share their belief in God through Biblical stories and crafts as the children of Hope grow in their Christian faith. These children are the future of our church. The more volunteers we receive, the fewer Sundays each person will need to cover. Please consider and pray on how you might be able to help in this important educational experience.

FROM OUR INTERIM PASTOR

Someday I want to write a book called “Stuff I’ve Learned Along the Way.” Not that I think anyone else would be interested in the stuff that I’ve learned, but that it helps me to make sense of life and its meaning when I am able to articulate my understanding.

One thing that I have learned is that life often hurts but that hurt doesn't have to dictate my response.

Phil recently told me that a researcher has now shown that each of us is born with a “happiness set point.” There are some things that we can do that affect that happiness point. Hurt and sadness can make us unhappy for a time while good things can make us happier than usual for a time, but most of us stay within a range of our “set point.” I don’t like to argue with science but I think that happiness is more complex than that. I know that my faith definitely affects my happiness. I may have been gifted with a pretty happy “set point” but faith makes that even better and it certainly makes it steadier. Faith has helped me to deal with a lot of things that would otherwise have blasted my set point into the basement. So when I’m hurt, physically, emotionally, spiritually, I turn to the Lord. I also wait on the Lord because recovering from hurt isn’t instantaneous, even with faith. And I wish that the whole world could know this.

Another thing that I have learned is that life has its meaning in the midst of the good and the bad. I can’t imagine ever getting strong without something to push against in life. Perhaps the modern American effort to never suffer will eventually do us a great disservice. The times when I have most turned to God and have grown from my experience have always been the hardest times.

I have learned to love and trust the people of God. In a world of mistrust, it is refreshing and life giving to be able to trust the love of God’s people. Now, when I say this, I know that not all of God’s people are trust-worthy. What I trust in them is “God in them.” The more I sense the In-Dwelling presence of the Lord with them, the more fully and deeply I trust them and the more their love for me, through Christ, strengthens and undergirds me. Wouldn’t it be great if everyone in the world could have that kind of trust for others who actually are worthy of trust because of Christ within them?

I have learned to live in and with forgiveness. I am increasingly aware of my failings, the many things that I cannot do or that I am just bound not to do. But I am even more open to turn to God for forgiveness in those things. And when I do, I am increasingly willing to let God forgive me and to allow that forgiveness to lift the burden of my guilt and shame. That’s what makes it possible for me to forgive those who have hurt me as well. Wonder how different the world would be if everyone could live in and with forgiveness?

I have learned that the best way to live is to live generously. In 2009 when the economy was in a downturn, my congregation had several families with one or both adults out of work. People were worried and afraid and the church council was reining in mission spending because they were afraid of what would happen. I decided that I would have to lead the congregation very openly in this challenge. So, I made an announcement at all of our services. I said that in response to these challenges I was changing my percentage of giving from 12% to 20%. I was doing this because we had folks who were out of work and the last thing I wanted them to do was worry about the viability of their church. Then I simply said, “If you are someone who can increase your generosity, please join me.” That year was one of our largest surpluses. God is generous... we who love and follow God thrive when we are generous.

When you have God, you have life! So, live in faith, trust God and turn to God’s people for help. Be open to forgiveness! And live generously.

HOPE'S CALL PROCESS

It may seem so slow to all of us, but your church council and other leaders have been busy working on the Ministry Site Profile that was recently adopted by your Hope Congregation Council. On Monday, July 27, it was submitted to the synod. We await its approval at which time it will be shown nationally to all ministers online.

The Call Committee has been selected by Hope's council according to the instructions and advice of Pr. Jeff Wick, Assistant to the Bishop, who is working with us during this call process. He informed council that it might be 9 months or so before we reach our goal of a minister accepting our call. (Thankfully, God has provided Hope with Pastor Vicki to shepherd us in the meantime.) The Call Committee members are Mary Bryant (council liaison), Brian Byrne, Jerry Ivins (chair elected by council), Erin Krieg, Eva McMasters, and Dylan Vogelsong.

We ask for your prayers and support as we explore what God has in store for Hope's future.

Joy Ivins, Council President

NEWS FROM KATHI

Dear Hope Lutheran Church,

Prayers of blessings for peace and joy for all of you for this month of July. Summer seems to be a time of movement, for kids especially as they are freed from the schoolroom confines, but for families of one and families of many members. Some of us are moving homes, some are heading for vacations, some are only going on vacation in their dreams. For all of us, may the peace of our Lord Jesus Christ reign in our hearts and minds. My summer is thankfully being spent in Cincinnati, at home with my husband. I get to be at Good Samaritan Hospital this summer, as a Chaplain in Clinical Pastoral Education. This is an intensive 10-week learning experience. After spending nearly a month in this program, I have learned more about myself than all my years up to this point combined! That can be good and it can be difficult as well. But it is a truly freeing experience. And this is what I pray for all of us as well this month: Freedom for us as Christians! God be with all of us as we live and move and have our being in Christ.

JULY NEWS AND THANK YOU'S

Dear members of Hope!

On behalf of my mom and myself, we would like to say thank you for sending me to Lutheran Memorial Camp this summer. I had a wonderful time learning a lot about the Water of Life. There was a night sleeping under the stars which resulted in a wake up call of rain at 5 in the morning, rock climbing, zip lining, camp songs, and making new friends and wonderful memories. We also had daily worship and Bible studies. Oh and the food was great too! I really loved camp this year and am making preparations in attending next year and be a part of the confirmation group and maybe Sadie will too! Again thank you and God Bless you!

Yours in God's Amazing Grace, Hannah Tolle

Thank you to Barb Mack for picking up Altar Flowers for June 18th service. Thank you to Gretchen Dille and Mary Beth Taylor who is saving the Sunday bulletins for me for future use in planning Worship services. Since I was going to be gone four Sunday services, I appreciate my altar guild team of Bonnie Leonhardt, George Albright, Carmen Hasdorff, Chuck Hasdorff, Sue Kelbley and Austin Kelbley who are taking care of altar for me. Ruth Oehler, Altar Guild

Thank you, Lucinda Hardin, who keeps Hope's outdoor sign current.

A special thank you to Karen Schweinfest who has been such a trooper through her treatments, and Susie Cowan who has been scheduling the offering music for the Traditional services. Thank you to Tim and Zoey Beagle, Carmen Hasdorff, and Dale Renner for volunteering your musical talents.

I appreciate everyone praying for my sister Linda with her recent surgery.

The snacks were a big hit as always!

Our wonderful SON Ministries directors were "heroes" at VBS, too!

500 YEARS CELEBRATED

October 31, 2017, commemorates the 500th anniversary of Martin Luther's recorded posting of the 95 theses on the door of the Castle Church of Wittenberg.

WORDS OF WISDOM

God has caused the flowers to blossom at certain specified times during the day. Linnaeus, the great botanist, once said that if he had a conservatory containing the right kind of soil, moisture, and temperature, he could tell the time of day or night by the flowers that were open and those that were closed.

The lives of each of us may be ordered by the Lord in a beautiful way for His glory, if we will only entrust Him with our lives. If we try to regulate our own lives, we will have only mess and failure.

Only God, who made our brains and hearts, can successfully guide them to a profitable end.
